

OPENING OF SUMMER AT NATURAL BRIDGE

Guests Beginning to Arrive to Enjoy Numerous Attractions of Noted Resort.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Natural Bridge, Va., June 10.—The rare June days have come to the lovely Bridge country and its hills and woods thrill with the ecstasy of the summertime. The fame of the Virginia mountains is widespread, and certainly this is a picturesque garden spot. The scenery is beautiful beyond description, and the climate unexcelled. The atmosphere is always exhilarating, and the cool nights bring refreshing sleep.

This most delightful and splendidly equipped all-the-year-round resort has had a very successful winter and spring season, and is now receiving its summer guests. The summer season promises to be a very full and gay one. The genuineness of the attractiveness of the Bridge is well attested in the return of its patrons year after year, and in the reiteration of its motto: "Once at the Bridge, always at the Bridge." The Plaza Club is gaining new members, who beguile the hours with embroidery and gay chatter.

Many attractions are offered the sojourner here. The lovely garden where the wonderful Bridge holds aloft its great arch has a perennial charm. The shining waters of the swimming pool are most inviting. There are lovely walks through the fragrant woods, and charming drives in all directions. The road to Mount Jefferson, the most commanding point, has been improved and drives through the woods beyond have been opened where the timid may wander at will for miles from the automobiles of the main highways. In these beautiful woods the traveler will find the Tulp Lane shaded by its graceful poplars. A playground for children has been arranged near the hotel, where swinging willows overhang a little stream. Rustic bridges span this and rustic seats cluster around the bases of the trees, while swings, the delight of childhood, hang from their branches.

Tourists come daily from all parts of the world to see nature's great miracle, and constitute an ever-changing throng. Mingled with these just now are the June brides, a smiling and happy procession, for the Bridge is an ideal place for a honeymoon. Parties of girls from Hollins, Sweet Briar and Virginia College have recently added gaiety to the days. Almost hourly courting parties come from all directions, finding rest and refreshments here. The week-end gatherings are increasing.

Salem Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Salem, Va., June 10.—The past week has been rather a gay one for Salem society. The first of the week's social functions was a charming dinner tendered by Miss Elsie Denit at her home on Pennsylvania Avenue, complimentary to her guests, Misses Roberta Andrews, of Falls Church, the interior of the pretty home was decorated with roses, sunnys, pink and white carnations, creating out of the plan of pink, white and green. The cards were received at the door by Miss Louise Denit. The guests received in the reception hall by Miss Katie Dillard. The hostess assisted by the guest of honor and Miss Rachel Kline. The punch-bowl, being line in the parlor. The punch-bowl was presided over by Misses Roxie Dillard and Nancy Logan, while those assisting the dining-room were Misses Marie Wolfe, Rachael Garrett, Elizabeth Oakley and Annie Mae Garrett. The color scheme was very tastefully carried out in the refreshments.

Thursday afternoon Miss Nan Logan entertained at her home on Broad Street, of a euchre party given in honor of her guest, Miss Nan Graybill, of Woodstock. There were four tables of six-hand euchre in play. Delicious fruit punch and candy was served during the game, followed by an ice cream. Miss Annie Rendles rendered several selections on the piano. The guest list was as follows: Mrs. George E. Koonitz, Mrs. E. J. Conrad, Misses Gladys Sedway, Mann, Bessie Amoss, Roxie Dillard, Rachael Garrett, Glennie Martin, Nan Logan, Helen Bonaldi, Mattie Brown, Annie Mae Garrett, Annie Langhorne, Bessie Galloway, Edith McCulling, Lillie Logan, Alfreda Peel, Sarah Bushnell, Edith Galloway, Katie Dillard, Rachael Scruggs, Nora Shanks, Francis Keiser. Mrs. E. J. Conrad was hostess on Tuesday afternoon of the Willing Workers of the Presbyterian Church at the last meeting of the season, which was in the form of a silver tea. Nearly all the members were present, and after the business session, an over strawberry ice cream, cake, and candy were served.

Friday evening annual commencement of Roanoke College will begin Sunday morning, June 11, continuing through the 14th.

At the Salem and Roanoke College German Club have given three dances and there will be one Monday night. The final german will be given on Wednesday evening, June 14, in which many visiting young women upon the college finals will participate.

Miss Bessie Brown left this week for an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. J. B. Toney, at Wheeling, W. Va.

Mrs. William Pearson and two children have returned to their home at Harrisburg, Pa., after a two weeks' visit to relatives in Salem.

Miss Mary Lee, who spent the past week as guest of friends at Hollins College.

Cismont Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cismont, Va., June 10.—The lawn party at Mrs. S. P. Townsend's beautiful home on Thursday afternoon was very pleasant. A great many guests, however, were deterred by the hot weather from attending.

Mrs. Bartlett Bolling, of Preston Heights, has been visiting her daughter, Robert Shackelford, of Henric, near Cismont.

Amongst the guests who stayed with Mrs. W. E. Money for the night at the Money School, were Mrs. H. C. E. Potts, of Ashland, Mrs. Harry B. Smith, of Hornsquarter, Hanover; Miss Alice Parish, of Charlottesville, and Miss Mary and Zella Harris, of the university.

The young people who are now arriving daily from their various schools, Miss Mary and Zella Harris, of the university, Miss Mary and Zella Harris, of the university, Miss Mary and Zella Harris, of the university.
